

COVID-19 Patient Workflow Process

Please remember as patients are screened and treated for COVID-19, providers still have an obligation to follow up with any urgent medical conditions. Depending on the disposition and practice ability, this could be accomplished through telehealth or coordinating care with other providers such as the health department or hospital.