

Defending good medicine

Should you be faced with an incident, claim, or lawsuit, a dedicated claims consultant with experience in your region will be with you every step of the way.

How to Report an Unexpected Outcome, Claim, or Lawsuit

For easy reporting and quick response, complete our online form:

Or visit curi.com and click “Report Incident” in the top-right menu.

You will receive a confirmation email once you submit your form, and your dedicated claims consultant will respond shortly.

For reporting assistance or for additional information, please call 800-328-5532.

Curi provides the following services and processes to support you and strengthen our defense:

- HEAL, exclusive early intervention program
- Access to our Clinician Peer Consult Program, which connects clinicians facing an adverse event, claim, or lawsuit with a peer consultant
- 24/7 dedicated, direct access to a claims examiner
- Experienced defense counsel with up to two attorneys at trial
- Extensive deposition and trial preparation
- Dedicated, tenured claims consultants with legal, healthcare, industry, and insurance experience will review your case
- Multiple experts beginning early in the process, drawing from a national network of leading academic and community-based professionals